| New Project: Co-Production | Sally had drafted a letter to consumers re the co-production project. The group worked on refining the wording and reducing its size. (Please see consumer letter document.) Distributed copies of the principles of co-production and the co-production workshop. The group had a brief look. Principles are: 1. People are assets: the skills they bring are used in the process of change 2. People feel there is a safe space to speak up and be listened to | Sally to re-write letter, plus information about co-production plus explanation of SSRG's role |
